

San Giuseppe Barolo DOCG 2015

Pecchenino

PAIRS WITH

SCORE

90

This has an initially shy nose that eventually reveals rose, toasted hazelnut, new leather, camphor and a hint of tobacco. The palate is youthfully assertive, offering dried cherry, blood orange, espresso and a hint of rusty iron set against tight, grainy tannins that leave a rather dusty, drying finish.

Kerin O'Keefe

Wine Enthusiast, December 2019

Follow us at @viaswine

