The 2019 Pinot Nero L'Eterno seduces with a darkly alluring bouquet that mixes sweetly spiced plums with violet candies, balsam herbs and hints of smoke. Its silky textures usher in a polished yet pure display of red and hints of blue fruits, all lifted by cooling acidity. Firm, grippy tannins come forward through the long yet youthfully structured finale, as this tapers off a bit chewy and primary. Cellaring for another year or two is recommended, or at least an hour of decanting.
