The 2018 Cerasuolo di Vittoria Giambattista Valli is understated yet refined, featuring purple-tinged flowers, incense, and hints of black licorice. This is seamlessly silky and elegant in feel, with a polished display of blackberry and currant giving way to a bitter twang of savory spice. Pretty inner violet notes and minerals mingle over a coating of round tannins, as the 2018 finishes with admirable length. I love the harmonious mix of textures, acids and fruit here. Nicely done.
