Crushed apples, brown spices and dusty dried florals create a rich and inviting display on the 2019 Frascati Superiore Poggio Verde. It's silky-smooth and pliant, almost glycerol-like in feel, with notes of ripe pear and hints of peach motivated by brisk acidity. This tapers off a bit short yet fresh and with a hint of sour green citrus that keeps the mouth watering for more. The Poggio Verde is a blend of 50% Malvasia di Candia, 20% Malvasia del Lazio and a 30% mix of Greco, Grechetto and Trebbiano Toscano.
