

Bodega Volcanes Tectonia Red Blend 2017

Bodega Volcanes

PAIRS WITH

SCORE

90

The Mediterranean red blend 2017 Tectonia Grenache Petite Sirah Mourvedre is a 45/40/15 blend of the three grapes grown in different valleys (Rapel, Maipo and Maule). It has ripe notes of wild berries and aromatic herbs and comes through as balsamic and juicy, with some notes of esparto grass and other Mediterranean herbs, reflecting the varieties and 2017 weather. It has abundant, fine-grained tannins and a serious mouthfeel. Only 1,000 bottles produced. It was bottled in October 2018.
