

Giulia Pecorino Terre Acquilane IGT 2018

Cataldi Madonna

PAIRS WITH

SCORE

89

The 2018 Pecorino Giulia lifts up with mineral intensity, as crushed stone gives way to hints of ginger, apple and dusty dried florals. This is soft in texture, excited by bright acids and a tart display of white orchard fruits, building tension toward the close. The cheeks pucker through the mouth-watering finale, just begging for another sip, with hints of lemon rind and nectarine slowly tapering off

Eric Guido

Vinous Media, April 2021

Follow us at @viaswine

