

Broglia Bruno BRoglia Gavi di Gavi DOCG 2017

Opening to a luminous straw gold color, the Broglia 2017 Gavi Bruno Broglia takes a little while to express itself aromatically and starts off with easy peach and white melon. At a second moment, you get hints of wild herb and almond. This is a generous, lean-bodied white with some of the textural creaminess that came so easily in this hot and dry vintage. It's a solid party wine with some shrimp cocktail.
